November 2024

An Invitation from GoodVision

Dear Friend of GoodVision,

When the GoodVision Team in India first met Anshuman, he was a nine-year-old struggling to decipher letters and numbers on the blackboard. An eye test revealed that he was nearsighted. Soon after receiving his GoodVision glasses, his academic performance and confidence grew. In an instant, Anshuman's quality of life changed dramatically, and he is now able to realize his full potential.

India is one of the 11 countries where GoodVision is having a transformative impact on the over 900 million people like Anshuman who need glasses but don't have access to quality vision care. Children cannot learn, adults cannot work and care for their families, and individuals can't participate fully in their communities. With your support, GoodVision is changing this.

We have bold plans to increase the number of people we serve in 2025 and invite you to be part of the change we are making in some of the most vulnerable parts of our world. Our goal with this campaign is to raise $25,000 to provide life-changing glasses to 25,000 people in 2025. With our online form at goodvisionusa.org/donate, investing in this transformative work is easy.

Thank you for your generosity and for being part of the GoodVision Community. Together, we are bringing life-changing sight to children like Anshuman and the world.

With Gratitude,

Jen Hyde
Associate Director

Shana Feeley, GoodVision USA's new Administrative Coordinator

A warm welcome to Shana Feeley

GoodVision USA is happy to announce that Shana Feeley has joined our organization as our new Administrative Coordinator. Shana is a tireless advocate for social change, both within the US and abroad. After earning her degree in communications, Shana found her passion in nonprofit work, primarily focusing on public health, disability, and education. Aware of the limited resources available for nonprofits, she approaches everything she does with an efficiency lens. She analyzes processes and recognizes areas for improvement to maximize impact. Shana thrives by solving problems and being resourceful but shines brightest when helping others.
